

Ag 3 R. D. TRIMBLE, Jr.
Delmege

Front Page	Edit Page	Other Page
		14

CHARLESTON, S.C.
NEWS & COURIER

MORNING 61,500
SUNDAY 73,339

AUG 25 1962

Funeral Services Scheduled Today For R. D. Trimble

WASHINGTON — Funeral services will take place here today for R. Delmege Trimble Jr., a Summerville, native who was an editor and administrative officer for the Central Intelligence Agency and a former newspaperman. Burial will be in Richmond. Mr. Trimble, 55, died at his home here Wednesday night after a heart attack. He had been connected with CIA since 1948, after having worked here for several years with the U. S. News and World Report.

Mr. Trimble was a combat veteran of both the European and Pacific Theaters in World War II, and was decorated by the French for his work in the North African campaign.

Before the war, he worked for the Washington Post, The Baltimore Sun, the Richmond Times-Dispatch and the New York Herald Tribune's Paris desk.